

1. K-LOVE is a radio station that provides uplifting music without commercials and it helps me get through the day. It also announces local activities open to the community.
2. The other Christian radio station is a commercial station and runs a lot of "talk radio" and not much music.
3. KLOVE reaches people for Christ throughout the world. It would be a travesty to lose that service.